

PARIS

French Sophistication

Seated next to Parisian must-sees like the Place Vendôme, the Opéra Garnier, and the Louvre, the 37-room Le Roch Hotel & Spa boasts a sunlit courtyard, fresh greenery, a library, a destination restaurant, and an exclusive spa and steam bath. Erected in 1836, the building is given a new life by French interior designer Sarah Lavoine and award-winning architect Vincent Bastie, meaning guests can expect clean lines, noble materials, and uncluttered spaces in elegantly tranquil interiors of soft pastels. www.leroch-hotel.com

BUDAPEST

Hungary for Luxury

Ritz-Carlton makes a landing in Hungary with the The Ritz-Carlton, Budapest. Aside from indulging in luxury, guests can choose to wander the meandering cobbled streets of World Heritage-listed Buda Castle district, take to the rejuvenating waters from one of the city's thermal springs, or sample Hungarian cuisine and wines so accessible from the hotel's convenient location. Gourmands can dine in comfort as The Ritz-Carlton, Budapest also houses The Kupola Lounge, a contemporary bar, spa and fitness centre. www.ritzcarlton.com

PALMA

Middle Earth

Lounges and spas, restaurants and bars, infinity pool and in-room Jacuzzis are everything you can find at the Nakar Hotel. Located in Palma's main shopping district renowned for spectacular bays, bougainvillea-strewn landscape as well as world-class galleries and museums on sundrenched streets, the 57-room property opens to interiors that contrast locally sourced oak and stone with industrial tones of black-lacquered iron and glass, while the rooms are defined with earth-tone fabrics and a neutral colour palette. Absorb Palma's sweeping Bay from its eighth-floor restaurant and bar before getting your groove on at the rooftop bar, then escape to the spa when the party is over. www.nakarhotel.com
